Turkey Tunes 2011 Benefits the Woodall Foundation

The 4th annual Turkey Tunes Benefit Concert was organized by Mark & Terri Haymann and held on Sunday, November 27th at Memphis Restaurant and Club in North Dallas. Once again the Woodall Foundation was the proud beneficiary of this musical event that featured 12 acoustical acts. The musicians entertained the crowd with a mix of original recordings and popular cover songs. In addition to the concert, supporters bought t-shirts, beef jerky and bid on the silent auction items to help raise over $5000 for the Woodall Foundation and its beneficiaries. For more about this year's concert, visit www.facebook.com/turkeytunes.

Nabors Birthday Carnival Benefits the Woodall Foundation

Steve Nabors and his wife Carolynn pose with their daughters Saxton (2) and Skyler (1) at the girls' birthday carnival

The Nabors family celebrated another birthday recently. Saxton turned 2 years old, but this year she shared the celebration with her baby sister, Skyler, who turned 1. This festive event included carnival games, a ferris wheel, a bounce house, pony rides and a petting zoo. Once again the Nabors asked that their guests make donations to the Woodall Foundation instead of bringing gifts to the party. Thanks to their generosity the Nabors were able to make a $500 donation to the Woodall Foundation. These funds will go to further the programs to help medically challenged children and their families. THANK YOU Saxton and Skyler!
